Dear Mr. Ou Ning,

My name is Giulia Farencena Casaro and I am 19 years old. I am from Italy; I live in a small town of South Tyrol called Toblach-Dobbiaco but I also lived a part of my life in Bologna and in Venice.

If I should describe me in two words: I'm very shy but I am strongly determined to take my goals.

I love to draw, to observe, to eat, to take photos, to walk around while listening to music and I love to sing (but only for myself).

Now, I am concluding the second semester of Fashion Design at Polimoda.

Why Fashion?

I decided to study Fashion because, since I was a child, my attention was captured by colours, forms, art, motion and every kind of unconventional things.

But Fashion, I think, gives me a sense of universality, because I believe that it is a kind of discipline that contains everything.

Fashion is for me... a universal language.

My dream?

I would like to speak to all people's mind and touch the deepest part of our body and soul through this language: my ideas and my creations.

I would like to awake feelings like enthusiasm, happiness and why not even sadness?

But... my biggest dream would be to express a critic vision in order to make people aware of important issues in life.

My best regards

Giulia
